Fly-In" Breakfast Well Attended

Getting away from it all meant getting above it all for a happy band of filers here Sunday.

The result was a hearty outdoors breakfast had by all in ideal weather—and served by members of the Oak Hills Flying Club.

The big breakfast "fly-in" drew private pilots from across Southern Ontario—and a couple from Quebec.
In all, 45 amateur airmen flew their private planes here in response to the wide-open invitation.

Farthest points were Petrolia and Montreal.

Hastings County Riders

The idea for the Hastings County Riders was thought of last year by Glenn Floud, but at that time not enough people were interested to form a Club. This year a few horse-men got together with Glenn to or-ganize a Club for those who enjoy going on trail rides and not so much competition.

competition.

The officers are: President, Ted Cairns; Vice-President, Glenn Floud, both of Stirling; and Mrs. Napcy Alin, See-Treasurer, of Corbyville.

The Club has a membership of fifteen, mostly married couples.

The Club held its first show at Stirling on the 22nd of May and it was a success in every way. In view of this, the Hastings County Ridders are holding an overnight trait ride on the first of July, open to all interested parties. "HONEST COURTEOUS SERVICE BUILDS OUR BUSINESS

Frankford 398-6077 Stirling 395-3333

As my old Grandmother used to say many years ago, "Neither braggin' nor blowin' but . . ." and then continue on to relate some fine piece of news. Well, you may have to put up with a bit of braggin' and blowin' from any telephone people you may know across the country. We're all basking in reflected glory these days following the impact our Telephone Association of Canada Pavillon has had on the crowds visiting Expo 67. Why, even newspaper critics are raving over the results of several years of planning and work by the major telephone companies in Canada who worked as a team on this project. The whirlwind tour of Canada via Wait Dianey's Circle Vision 360 degrees technique proved the most popular attraction at Expo during its opening weeks. Some 36,00 visitors a day are crowding into the circular theatre in the Telephone Pavilion to view the wonders that are Canada. Canada 67 is leaving Canadians with a deep sense of pride in their country and visitors from other land with a new respect and awe at the vastness and variety of our land. I hope you will put the Telephone Pavilion high on your list of "must visit" buildings when you are at Expo. It seems to be the popular and "in" thing to do at the greatest World's Fair ever.

Seems hard to believe, especially with all the com-cations of the future on display in the Telephone ion at Expo 67, but just 91 years ago — June 25, — the first public demonstration of the telephone held at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Wm. Barlow, of St. Mark's Church, Bonarlaw, read a poem "60 Years of Farming", which was over 100 years old.

Mrs. Densmere Lain, of Stanwood, aang "The Little Old Church in the Valley", with piano accompaniment by Mrs. C. Thomson. Mrs. Gerald McFaul, of Spring Brook, gave two short readings, "Orphans of the Living" and "Do Something". Mrs. Ellis Jones gave a "History of Rylstone Church" from pioneer days to this Centennial Year. Mrs. Alfred Akins of Wellman's Corners, gave a reading, "This Is Canada". A national hymn "Our Loved Dominion Bless" and a benediction brought this part of the meeting to a close.

The silver sacrament service, don-and has been replaced in use by the individual glasses for several years. Sandwiches, old fashioned cake, doughnuts and tea were served and the lovely centennial cake made and decorated by Mrs. Robt. Barnes, of Springbrook, was cut and served. It had been on display before the programme.

Home baking tables, under the supervision of Mrs. James Legge and Mrs. Trueman Miller and the baxaar and sale of plants, conducted by Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Mrs. Ellia Jones were well patronized.

Several of the ladies were in centennial costume and several pictures were taken at the close.

up, saying: "I can't turn her over. I can't even bugs her."
The crowd laughed and laughed and said they had not had so much fun playing euchre in a long time.
To the visitor's embarrassment, they explained it was the card and not the woman he was to turn. Then the big lady said, "I can't make it and I want to pass." "Well," he said, "there's pienty of room for two to pass here, but maybe you know best.". She had that worried look and gazing at her cards remarked, "Oh, dear!. My hands have been spots all afternoon." At this information, the gentleman, never having had measles and not wishing to be exposed to them, got up and excusing himself, left for home.

He was heard to remark when he left: "Well, I'd like to come back again next week for they say it will perhaps be the last meeting until Fall. But if I do, I hope they play dominoes.

Convention Held

At Guelph

The Gist Ontario Horticultural Convention was held at The University of Guelph (formerly O.A.C.) from June 21st to June 23rd. Approximately seven hundred delegates and members registered. North Bay, Pembroke, Sarnia, Ottawa, Picton and Stirling were some distant Societies represented.

Speakers during the convention were Hon. George Drew, Chancellor of the University of Guelph, speaking on "The Challenge of the Second Century"; Dr. Grant Carman, Ottawa, "Man and His World"; Atam. Jit-Singh Ball, of Kashmir, who spoke on his homeland and showed a film of the beautiful country, crops and fruits, which included cherries, strawberries and apricots, which are exported all over the world. Mr. Ball is to graduate this year from the University of Guelph.

At the banquet on Thursday night, Rev. Dr. Findiay Stewart, of Kitchener, was a very jolly and humorous speaker, Other highlights were films shown during seasions and prize winning sildes from a contest conducted by the Society. More entries are needed in this venture.

The social side of the Convention included a bus tour of Kitchener, Waterloo and Guelph in pouring rain. Parks and shopping malls were admired by all. After the tour all went to the Physical Education Bullding.

Centennial dresses were to be worn during the Convention as much as possible and during the evening prizes were awarded for best authentic and modern made costumes. Square Dance Clubs from Guelph entertained with modern square dancing. Coffee and cookies were served courtesy of the Guelph Horticultural Society.

Centennial Service St. Andrew's Church West Huntingdon

Centennial Sunday was fittingly observed at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon, on the Sunday previous to Canada's one hundredth birthday, when former members and members of neighbouring churches were invited to worship in a special service at eleven o'clock. The church was filled to capacify and Rev, D. C. MacPherson chose the text from Exodus 3:5 and Acts 7:33, the place where thou standest is in holy ground", and preached on the theme "Holy Ground". He spoke of the significance of the burning bush and holy ground and reminded his listeners to look to the future.

STIRLING HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Beautiful summer flowers enhanced the Church in wicker stands and on the Communion table and were given by the Haggerty family in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty. Warren and Donald, and Mrs. Marguerite Clancy; by the McInroy family in memory of Mr. Andrew McInroy and Mr. Horpeson.

Special music was rendered by the Explorers singing the hymn "Come. Children, Join To Sing", accompanied by Mrs. Lindsay Sills, who also accompanied the hymns, "O God, Our Help In Ages Past", "Onward, Christian Soidlers", and "Lord of the Lands", which were all very fitting for such a service.

Following the sermon, Rev. Mac. Pherson, assisted by the elders, Messrs. Morley Haggerty, John Wallace, Harold Thompson and Milton Shaw, dedicated two new flags, the Centennial and the Maple Leaf, which had been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper; and two wicker flower stands and a rug for the choir loft, which were gifts from West Huntingdon United Church. All these gifts were greatly appreciated by the congregation of St. Andrews.

Following the singing of the National Anthem, the guests, numbering approximately 150, were invited to the Sunday School rooms for a luncheon. They were welcomed there by Mrs. D. C. MacPherson, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mrs John Wallace. The tables were attractive with linen Cloths, summer flowers and a vaster.

The tables were attractive with liner cloths, summer flowers and a variety of salads, cold meat, coffee, relighes and pie. Mrs. John McInroy, President of the Ladies' Aid and Mrs. William Donnan very capably planned the menu. Several members were in Centennial costume, which added to the consection.

Guests were in attendance from Kingston, Ottawa, Toronto, Belleville, Campbellford and from the neighbouring churches.
In the evening about thirty-five members enjoyed their evening meal at the Church as a fitting climax to Centennial Sunday.
